5K 2.

Asimov had been in contact with the Qashgai chiefs in Firuzabad prior to the Boir Ahmadi uprising and had promised considerable Soviet support if the Qashgais would lead a large-scale revolt against the government. The Qashgais, however, refused.

3. [REDACTED] Ashurov had approached him in Kermanshah at the time of the organization of the Kurdish People's Republic in 1946 in an attempt to get his influence in bringing the Kurds of southern Iran into the Kurdish Republic.
